Alleged Likenesses of Former Ministers to England Are Pronounced Unworthy.

Through the objection of their descendants to the quality of the portraits of his predecessors, which hang on the walls of his private office, Embassador Page hopes to secure an improvement in the gallery. During the past fortnight one grandson and one great-grandson have assured the embassador with some warmth that the presentments of their distinguished ancestors were almost libelous, and they offered to replace the offending portraits with ones which would be better art, if not better likenesses. Dr. Page assured them that such contributions to the artistic improvement of the historic collection would be welcomed, and he expressed the hope that other disgruntled diplomatic descendants would call to examine the pictures of their forebears.

When President Lawrence Lowell of Harvard university called recently upon the embassador he was almost overcome when he saw the chromo which serves to perpetuate the features of his grand-father, Abbott Lawrence, who once represented the United States at the cour of St. James. The Lowell family has always run to brains rather than beauty, but the Harvard president declared that his ancestor did not even look intelligent in the embassy portrait.
C. C. Pinckney of Richmond, who

C. C. Pinckney of Richmond, who called several days later, was the next protestant. When he saw the picture of his great-grandfather, Thomas Pinckney, first regularly accredited minister to the court of St. James from Washington, he paraphrased the saying of another famous ancestor by exclaiming "Millions for art but not one cent for homes".

Embassador Page is now patiently awaiting the arrival of portraits of some of his early predecessors done in the best Trumbull and Stuart styles.

DEADLY TORPEDO HAS WIDE RANGE

Japanese Vessel Is Loaded With New Type of Destructive Agent.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The new Japanese battle cruiser Kongo, which has just sailed from Plymouth for home, is taking with her forty torpedoes of a new and secret design. These torpedoes, a twenty-ope-inch weapon officially known as the secret design. These torpedoes, a twenty one-inch weapon officially known as the V. L., are as great an improvement upon the British admiralty's Hardcastle weapon as that forpedo was upon its cold-air predecessors. Both are propelled by heated air; but while the Hardcastle had a range of 8000 yards, the V. L. can travel from 10,000 to 12,000 yards at a speed of forty-eight knots.

The trials of the Japanese order were made under the personal supervision of two officers of the Kongo, and the tests were carried on with the greatest secrecy. They are said to have been highly satisfactory.

In a few weeks the company manufacturing this new weapon will begin work on a large order for delivery to the United States navy.

"WOMEN OF TODAY ARE LIKE LOT'S WIFE"

Special Cable to The Tribune. LONDON, Sept. 20.—That Lot's wife has her counterpart among the society women of the present day was the statement made recently at St. Paul's cathedral by Canon Newbolt.

"Lot's wife," he said, "is very human and very modern, and there are hundreds of her type in London today; and she is interesting as an example of one who fell a victim to environment.

"The fetid atmosphere of her environment entered into her very soul. And there must today be many a pure, Godfearing woman who shrinks from herself in certain conditions of society from which she hardly believes it possible to absent herself even while she repudates and dislikes them.

"What of her daughters? Was she one of those who give good advice and care little about a good example? Was she one of those who could spare no time from her pleasures to look after her own home—one of those mothers who hate children, and if she is cursed with them leaves them to others' care or their own devices, or even trades on their matrimonial prospects?" LONDON, Sept. 20 .- That Lot's wife

Mother Unwittingly Kills. Special Cable to The Tribune.

LONDON, Sept. 20.-A verdict loath by misadventure" was return "death by misadventure" was returned at an inquest at Preston on a four-days-old child named Armstead. The evidence showed that when the child cried the mother held a caramel to its lips. The child sucked the caramel which slipped into its throat, and choked to death.

Don't Let Baby Suffer With Eczema and Skin Eruptions.

Babies need a perfect skin covering.
Skin eruptions cause them not only intense suffering, but hinder their growth. Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment can be relied on for relief and permanent cure of suffering babies whose skin eruptions have made their life miserable. 'Our baby was afflicted with breaking out of the skin all over the face and scalp. Doctors and skin specialists failed to help. We tried by Hobson's Ferrage Oit. and skin specialists failed to help. We tried Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment and were overjoyed to see baby completely cured before one box was used," writes Mrs. Strubler, Dubuque, Ia. All druggists, or by mail, 50c. Held Suicide Pleasure. Special Cable to The Tribune.

PARIS. Sept. 20.—A man of 44, named Affred Dreyfus, an ex-member of the l'oreign Legion, shot himself the other day in the Bois de Boulougne after scribbling a farewell note, "I am taking my life because it is a pleasure for me to do so." The body, which lies at the morgue, is tattooed all over.
